“My first semester being released to do full-time ministry on campus at University of Michigan! ... For the next 3-4 months I’ll be spending my time being pretty busy at the church. ... This past weekend we had a vision for living in the city. ... This financial support was enough for your! ... without your help and excited that we had a healthy baby girl. — John Blatzheim Indianapolis, IN, Shepherd Community Center

“

Our student church has been bursting at the seams. We doubled our LifeGroups — over 100 more than we had last year, and we have had consistently over 400 each Sunday morning in the student union. Praise God! Numbers for the sake of numbers are meaningless of course, and that is why we are excited to have had a student start a new relationship with Christ almost every week since the school year started!

→ FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Tom Mauriello

Growing things don’t just increase in size, they change and unfold into newer things. The lilies of the field or the mustard seed, as examples from the gospels. I also think of my daughter, as God grows her into the young woman she is becoming with each year. The missionaries sent and supported by Great Commission Ministries see this kind of growth and change every day. Hard hearts are turned soft and new. Sin is erased and forgiven and more than that: transformed into grace! New Creation unfolds right before our eyes.

In 2012, the unfolding mission of GCM included:

→ 159 college students from University of Michigan, who devoted their summer to an intense discipleship and outreach community they call Ann Arbor Leadership Training. 24 GCM missionaries (and 14 GCM college interns!) from New Life Church (part of the Collegiate Church Network) helped mentor and lead these top-ranked students, who have been “going viral” — starting outreach small groups on other Michigan campuses: Hope College (40 students showed up the first night!), Ferris State, Wayne State, Western Michigan, Eastern Michigan... and more to come.

→ 46 neighbors in San Francisco, who have joined a new church plant team near Golden Gate park. Redemption Church is seeking to plant gospel-centered, city-linked discipleship communities — not simply Sunday services. As a member of the core team, GCM missionary Dan Birch is engaging with his neighbors at the local YMCA and helping establish a church pattern of serving needy families — all before even opening the church doors.

→ 60 new missionaries and church planters (plus 40 summer interns!), who were trained by GCM to build and engage ministry donor teams to support their kingdom advances. They sat down and shared their local vision of what God was doing 5,149 individual times with potential first-time ministry donors. Wow!

→ $17.1 million of incredibly generous giving towards the ministry of GCM missionaries and church planters: that’s 8% growth over last year, and the fifth year in a row of growth.

In this Annual Report, we say again that GCM has been blessed by steady, organic growth — both in numbers and ministry impact. We are experiencing the unfolding growth in the gospel-centered mission of the Kingdom of God.

→ MISSIONARY VOICES

We run an evangelistic event called “Party At the Rock”. Hundreds of people show up to a concert on the front lawn of the church on campus. This month, several Chinese exchange students showed up to one party. When they found out the party was run by missionaries, they were more than willing to join in. Right then and there, they were baptized. — Tim Courtois

“How great is the love of our God about life and salvation! We have seen a number of salvations directed by the Collegiate Church Network and women to bring the Gospel to the city.
